

QUIRKO TYPEFACE

Quirko is a family of 4 fonts designed by Shrenik Ganatra, an independent artist based in Mumbai, India. It is inspired by tall, rounded sans-serif typefaces. The presence of rounded triangular protrusions and the inclusion of diamond-esque elements in certain glyphs imparts a conspicuously eccentric aesthetic to the typeface. This, combined with its assertive appearance and multiple weights, makes Quirko a suitable typeface for both digital and print media. Each font comprises over 300 glyphs.
